

Child Safeguarding Statement

1. Name and details of service provider and nature of service.

Irish National Youth Ballet (INYB) can be defined as stated by Children First Act 2015 as a service which provides, training, performance experience, social and physical activities for children and young adults. INYB is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee governed by a Board of Directors. It recognises it holds ultimate responsibility for the wellbeing of participants and staff (including volunteers). Through its dance programme, INYB delivers a range of youth and intergenerational activities involving young people aged 10-18 including: Classes, Workshops, Performances. INYB is a performance-based company with the maximum of 50 participants.

2. Principles to safeguard children from harm

In line with Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017) we are committed to safeguarding the children in our care and to child-centred practice in all our work with young people. We are committed to upholding the rights of every young person who attends our service, including the rights to be kept safe and protected from harm, listened to, and heard. This statement brings together INYB’s policies and procedures, which ensures our commitment is enshrined in all aspects of our work with young people. It is targeted at all adults involved in the work of INYB. Parents and young people will be informed of relevant policies and procedures as they relate to their participation.

The Mandated/ Designated Liaison Personnel are listed in the INYB Child Protection Policy.

4. Child safeguarding policies and procedures

Our Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with requirements under the Children’s First Act 2015, Children’s First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017), and Tusla’s Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice. In addition to the procedures listed in our risk assessment, the following procedures support our intention to safeguard children while they are members of the company.

- Procedure in respect of any member of staff/volunteer who is the subject of any investigation (howsoever described) in respect of any act, omission or circumstance in respect of a child availing of our service.
- Procedure for the safe recruitment and selection of workers and volunteers to work with children;
- Procedure for provision of and access to child safeguarding training and information, including the identification of the occurrence of harm;
- Procedure for the reporting of child protection or welfare concerns to Tusla;
- Procedure for maintaining a list of the persons in Irish National Youth Ballet who are mandated persons;
- Procedure for appointing a relevant person.

INYB’s Child Protection Policies and Procedures are provided to all our staff and workers and are available to parents/carers and our collaborating partners on request. They can also be found on our website: www.inybco.com

5. Implementation and review

We recognise that implementation is an ongoing process. INYB is committed to the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement and the accompanying child safeguarding
